

I strongly oppose any further deregulation of the public airways.
I oppose any changes which would allow further concentration of the ownership of media outlets in the US. It is essential to democracy that a variety of voices bbe heard, not just the wealthy.